

One-Page Response Paper

Directions: Write a one-page response using one of your articles from Monday. Once again, I truly mean a one-page response. You must create a short, compact argument that properly lays out your answer to the question. Every line in your paper should be carefully and purposefully included.

Category	5	3	1
Introduction /Thesis	Clearly introduces the article title, author, and topic of the article. Properly lays out the main point of the paper in a thesis statement.	Is missing the article title, author, or topic of the article. Somewhat lays out the point of the paper in a thesis statement.	Fails to introduce the article and fails to lay out the point in a thesis statement.
Commentary	Offers an original response to the article that is clear and thorough.	Has a response that is unclear of confusing.	Response is completely off-topic or difficult to comprehend.
Quotes	Paper includes at least one quote that is correctly integrated into the paper, and strongly supports the argument.	Paper attempts to include one quote that is integrated into the paper, and supports the argument.	Paper fails to include at least one quote that is incorrectly integrated into the paper.
Conclusion	Effectively ties together the paper and ends with a strong concluding sentence.	Ties together the paper and ends with a concluding sentence.	Poorly ties together the paper and ends with a weak concluding sentence.

Total Points: ____ / 20

Final draft due December 3

Comments: